Re: Delta Pilots Association v. John Doe,
Civil Action No. 1:14-cv-00225 (AKH)

Dear Judge Hellerstein:

I represent Non-Party Air Line Pilots Association, International ("ALPA") in the above-referenced matter. I write to request a short adjournment of oral argument on the motion of plaintiff Delta Pilots Association ("DPA") to compel compliance with its subpoena duces tecum served on ALPA. The court scheduled oral argument for August 12, 2014 by order dated July 30, 2014 (docket no. 19). The reason for the request is that tomorrow I am traveling out of the country for a long-planned visit with family and will not return until the evening of August 12. This is the first request for an adjournment. DPA consents to the request and I have e-mailed Mr. Silverstone a copy of this letter.

If it is convenient for the court, counsel for ALPA and DPA are available on August 14, 2014 any time before 3 p.m., although an early-afternoon hearing would be the easiest for us if acceptable to the Court.

Respectfully submitted,

Michael E. Abram
